Excerpt: . . . THE BEAST WITH SEVEN HEADS AND TEN HORNS. PART FIKST--CONTAINING A DESCRIPTION OP HIS SKELETON. Having been repeatedly compelled to pull down and build greater, we at length sat down and counted the cost of a fabric as high as heaven, and as deep as hell, and laid the foundation as broad as the earth. Then by an appeal to the throne of Almighty God, received letters of marque and reprisal on Satans empire, having also received a license of free access to the inexhaustible stores of the Word of God, and being embarked in the constitution of the United States, and armed with at least nominal freedom of the press and freedom of speech, we will set sail, and the breath of Heaven will waft us on to victory in the Kingdom of Heaven, though from sad experience we are well assured that Galileo is not the only one who endured the penalty of anathema for casting his pearls before the swine; but our grant being unlimited, and our stores inexhaustible, we will proceed to collect and arrange our materials and commence operating. In the case before us the only difficulty was to find an universal empire, and the only one that now exists, or ever did exist, and the way to find this was observation, as in the case of Galileo or Newton. They read the By pulling down and building greater is meant the failure in redressing the Hebrew brethren by...
