You re in good hands with Deborah Gafford s wild romantic comedy. -USA TODAY Bestselling Author Delores Fossen CROWNED HEART AWARD RONE AWARD FINALIST PRIZE WRITER FINALIST Susan Pierson needed a man who was good with his hands. And she needed him now. The constant drip of the kitchen faucet was driving her up the wall and totally ruining her concentration for her story for Sizzling Desire Magazine. Drip. Drip. Don t listen to it. Just type. Drip. Drip. Right. Susan gazed at the computer perched on the small table. Modem, phone and electric cords tangled like a mound of overcooked spaghetti. The city fire marshal would have a heyday if he could see it. But maybe he d belong to that precinct with the gorgeous Firemen of Station Forty-three calendar. She d have to throw herself on him, er, on his mercy, swear to straighten up the hazard and invite him back. to double check. After all, she was a safety first kind of gal. Most of the time. Well, once in a while anyway. Gurgle, drip, drip. Jeeze Louise! I ll never get this done. She shot an angry glance in the direction of the impudent water faucet. Don t even do it again. Drip. Aaagh! Who needs plumbing? Maybe she should just turn the water off completely. Right. And the flower boxes outside would make a great privy. Bang. Bang. Now what? Drip. Bang. Drip. Bang. Bang. What in the world is going on out there? Frowning, she stepped onto her patio and peered over a short rock wall. God. What a hunk. He could be a poster child for steroids and...
