The labors of the Board during the past year, have been of an important and difficult nature. The building of three School Houses; the repairs made on several of the old ones; the establishment of five schools; the alteration of the several school districts; the addition of backs to all the seats in the grammar schools within the Peninsula; together with the customary cares of superintendence; have comprised duties, arduous and responsible. In their performance, the Board have endeavored to act with a single eye to the immediate wants of the Schools and the permanent interests of the Town. In May last, six hundred and fifty four scholars were enrolled in the Harvard and the Winthrop Schools, and over one hundred were...
