This is the first book of Fargo and Friends. Follow the adventures of Fargo and his friends Niki, Sam the Siamese cat, You will get to meet Baracus the Brahma Bull and his son Big Red. Find out what Baracus does for fun and Big Red joins in on the fun. Fargo was a German shepherd mix mostly black in color with brown around his paws. He had a smallish head but a very stouthusky chest area. Fargo ruled the street that he lived on. There were 6-8 other dogs that lived on that mile long street. They all knew that Fargo was the top dog on that street. Fargos owner was a boy by the name of Erick. Ericks father brought Fargo home when Erick was about 10 years old and Fargo was just a puppy. Fargo had a habit of going on these little journeys around town on a monthly basis. He would be gone at most a couple of days at a time and would always return home. Fargo hated taking baths, Erick would have to chase him down or just take the water hose and spray him hoping to get some of the smell off him. They were the best of friends. Erick would take Fargo with him when he would go see his friends several blocks away. Erick would hop on his bike or go for a walk and Fargo would be right there next to him. Ericks best buddy was Paul who had an Alaskan Husky German Shepard mix named Niki. Fargo and Niki hit it off right away. Their first meeting went like this. Fargo said How are you doing my...
