JAGGED HORIZONS: A MISSIONARY PILOTS MEMOIRS: FLYING IN THE ANDES

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 298 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. Jagged Horizons is a true story; the heart-felt and tension filled saga of a young missionary pilots experiences flying in the Andes, a story which begins many years before, deep in the heart of a young boy who wanted to both fly, and serve others. His memoirs hold nothing back in telling the story of a new missionary pilot who accepts a call to fly in the Andes. He takes the reader into the cockpit of his aircraft, and into his mind while flying into treacherous airstrips in the mountains as well as the Amazonian rainforests. You will experience missionary flying as if you were there. Years earlier however, the right people come into his life; the right set of circumstances converge and his dream to serve unfolds. He meets Neatzie, the lady who would become his wife and influence his life immensely. As a former missionary she encourages and supports his choice to offer his skills as a pilotmechanic to serve others through mission aviation. Together, after years of preparation the couple, with their young children accept a call to serve with Andes Evangelical Mission based in Cochabamba, Bolivia, South America. But nothing could prepare them for the adjustments to a new way of life, a new climate, the chronic stomach illnesses known as amoebas; the long hours of language study, cultural faux pas, misunderstandings, and altitude sickness. Only time, faith and experience fashions the young 500 hour aviator into the pilot he needs to be to survive his calling. His formal training is cut short when his training pilot and predecessor takes ill. Alone he must face the challenges of flying a small Cessna 206 over the turbulent...
