Hindsight (Paperback)

By Giles Scott

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Hindsight is a detective novel with all the elements of that popular genre. However what makes this story unique and compelling is that it is set two years in the future, in a world which is entirely familiar except for one thing: the development of a fascinating new technology. This technology makes it possible to view events which occurred in the recent past. By 2012 the London Metropolitan Police Force is using Retro-Viewing with great success. However, ironically, this powerful new tool cannot solve a murder in their own offices. D.C.I. Derek van Vuuren is brought in to head up the investigation. Van Vuuren and the officers assisting him struggle to overcome a marked lack of hard evidence and credible suspects. Their use of Retro-Viewing is frustratingly inconclusive. They have to travel out of London and gain an understanding of the events of some years earlier before the case is solved. The unexpected solution to the case brings together, in a credible and satisfying way, the people and the technology that are central to the unfolding tale. Van Vuuren...
