It came about when a friend in the biz remarked that as rapidly as our industry changes there is real need for a practical, Internet car sales best practices playbook that can be updated and modified when needed and as needed. And so this book was born. As a working Internet car sales best practices consultant I am in dealerships every day witnessing and participating in our industrys rapid transition. So everything in this book is drawn from personal observation and experience. I promise you up-to-date real world stuff that works.
