I was raised in a large family which meant being short on cash needing creative ways to entertain one s self. My best friend was my imagination. I have a desire to entertain you but also to hopefully give you an insight into the principles I use for life. Look for the silver lining, laugh a lot and enjoy your friends and family. Hardships in life can make you bitter or grateful. I have chosen to appreciate life and the adventures that have come my way. In these short stories, I hope to bring you along with me.
