THE PERSONAL EQUATION (Continued from Page 127) held, whether collections are too slow or too aggressive as compared with other periods. It serves in production for control of various activities. The same is true in administration and in sales. All performances may then be combined into one composite result. Handling Reports Reports are a means of keeping management informed. They show the needs of improvement in methods or equipment. They should be written and signed by you, and presented to immediate supervisor, and with a copy for yourself and one for the general management to be delivered at once, or in some cases, held for later presentation. Here is the place where you can make all the cost of records and statistics pay dividends. Here is where you can perform a valuable...
