George T. oods, Armell, a Frenchman, and two Blackfeet Indians crossed the river from Iowa. and went afoot to what is now known as the Col. H. Baird Bluffs, thence south a short distance, and drove down the first claim stakes ever driven in Dakota county soil, and that Jesse Nigle. with his family, on the lgth day of August, same year, were the first to settle in the county. It further says: The first settlers. of Omadi, were VVoods, C. A. Horr, and Moses Krepp, who crossed the river on September 1st, 1855, and built log cabins. The set tlement grew rapidly, a saw mill was put in operation. and native lumber sold for 30 a thousand feet; John Bay put up a log cabin store, and in 56, new settlers arrived. Then the town was laid out, and William McBeath...
